

BASTROP FOOTBALL

Bastrop shines in annual spring game

Bastrop football fans walked away from the annual Maroon-White Spring Game with a good a good glance of how the 2009 Bastrop Bears will look in the upcoming season.

Both sides of the ball was clicking as the offense looked to be firing on all cylinders.

Bears coaches may have answered one question: who was going to be the other quarterback?

Nick Gosnell completed 8-of-16 passes wit one interception and two touchdowns and threw for 165 yards in the first half.

His first completion

COMING THURSDAY

Bastrop inducts Ed Sanders and Donnie Aldridge into Hall of Fame and more coverage from the Bastrop Spring Showcase.

came on his first attempt, a 62 yard touchdown pass to Trae Bunton.

"One of the big questions coming into spring practice was who was going to be the other quarterback." Perry said. "Nick showed he can do it. That's a good sign."

— Michael Adamas

Contributed photo by Larry Overall
Bastrop's Oscar Gonzales, left, chases down running back Mustafa Akbar Friday night at the 2009 Spring Maroon-White game at Erhard Field.